SPY ANALYSIS

The attempts by the FBI and CIA to "pre-identify" potential spies is a hopeless strategy. Hansen, the FBI spy, who claims to have been influenced by Kim Philby's autobiography provides the overriding reason. As he himself explains, the reason that Philby was able to operate for so many years even in the highest and most sensitive counter-intelligence positions had the least to do with his spying capabilities. He remained undetected, even though every sign pointed to him as a Soviet agent, because he was a member of the "club". He was a son of the British diplomat/agent/eccentric, St. John Philby. He was a Cambridge man. He came from the right class -- the same class as his peers and superiors.

When Hansen read the Philby memoir he realized that he, too, was destined to lead a charmed life. He was a member of the "club" --not the British "club" but the "club" that fit his circumstances, the "American club". Now , he was free to make some bucks, if he wanted to and to tweak the noses of his peers and superiors.

You cannot expect the FBI and CIA managers to always stare suspiciously down the pews each Sunday, or keep glancing questioningly at the caroler standing next to them. Its enough of a burden to wonder whether the priest has just pulled down the shorts of an altar boy or if the minister has been kissing the choir master. So Hansen was a safely ensconced club member until a series of agency disasters tripped him up--long after the damage had been done. The very same story was true of Aldrich Ames, whose club membership was certified by his daddy being a member of the company. Here was a guy who was living at a $500,000 level on a $50,000 income. Philby all over again. And it always be Philby. So always blame it on some Jew that can't get into the club and sweep the true story under the rug.

PASSING ON ARAB TAX MONEY

Israel is being unfair to the Arabs. The Israeli government provided the Arabs with guns so now it is only right to give them their tax monies so that they can buy ammunition for those weapons. So what if the Arabs use their weapons to shoot at is Israelis what did those stupid Jews expect the Arabs to do with the guns? And, remember. guns don't kill people Arabs do.

RULE OF FLAW

There are still Jews in Israel and the United States who envision living in a bi-national democratic state with the Arabs. This would be a country governed by a rule of law. For example, like the Arab nation of...of...of. There must be one Arab or Moslem country using the rule of ....of...of.... How about Saudi Arabia where the only laws we ever hear about are cutting off someone's hand for stealing (does this include the whole arm?); chopping off a person's head for adultery; whipping for not closing your store quickly enough on Friday. Iran, where you get the death penalty for writing a boring book. Iraq and Syria, with their laws of 99.9% pure elections. PLO land, with its law of two minute trials prior to the death sentence being imposed (and that's only for Arabs). The Arabs and Moslems truly believe in the rule of...flaw.

JUST ANOTHER LYING ARAB ROCK THROWER

So they withdrew Edward Said's invitation to give a talk at some psychoanalytic conference just because he threw rocks at some Israelis. at the Lebanese border. Who jumps to the defense of his G-d-given academic freedom to bombard Jews with rocks--some yidlach "doctors", of course, who, perhaps, want to keep their potential chairs warm at Arab universities. They shouldn't worry, their chairs are electrified....and being held for them. Nobody questioned why a bunch of Jews invited a certified liar to speak in the first place.

MOCK TRIAL FOR AVISHAI RAVIV

It's about time that someone upstaged the thugs in the GSS and their buddies in the Israeli judiciary. Let's take the focus off Har Shefi and shine the spotlight where it belongs--on Avishai Raviv, his handlers and their intimate friends in the Attorney General's office. Assemble a tribunal of some individuals with impeccable reputations and with guts and hold a public mock trial of Raviv for his complicity in the murder of Rabin. There is enough public information to make this very, very interesting. This also might speed up the long-delayed real trial

FRUMMERY AT ITS WORST

When the "Grand Rabbi" from New Square, NY promised to deliver the votes of his chassidim in exchange for a commutation of the sentences of his four felonious followers, I am certain that he never considered how this might affect the State of Israel. His underhanded efforts were helping elect Hillary Clinton whose positions leaned more to the Arabs than to Israel. Even apart from all of the other ethical issues in the case, consideration for the welfare of the Jews in Israel was not high on the "Grand Rabbi's" agenda.

DON'T TRY TO REASON WITH THE POST-ZIONISTS

Listening to their arguments of the post-Zionists about the "new" Middle East is as sad going through a mental institution and hearing the inmates claim that they are Napoleon or Jesus. While these premature universalists are as out of touch with reality as the inmates, their case is sadder because deep down they know they are living a lie. Is their belief so pure that they leave their doors unlocked at night...or even during the day? Don't try to reason with the inmates that are running about free.

REVISITING YUGOSLAVIA

Some time ago, I e-mailed one of the flag-waving senators from the State of Connecticut to support bombing of the Moslem terrorist Kosovo Liberation Army rather than send US troops to attack the Serbs. But in his rush to show what a good Clinton clone he was, he did not heed my advice or even acknowledge my message. Of recent weeks, as the KLA attacks the Serbs, the Macedonians and US and UN peacekeepers,, I have not heard as much as a whimper of regret for his misguided stand, His mentor is no longer involved in ignorant internationalism but has returned to orchestrating domestic affairs from Chappaqua and Harlem, if you'll pardon my meaning.

KILL THE INFIDEL STATUES

The Taliban have just finished bashing Buddha in Afghanistan. Their action really provides historic insight into the history of their religion. Despite the name it operates under--Islam which means peace--the Moslem religion from the day it was born spread its message with the sword. That is how it swept through the Middle East and North Africa so quickly. When the Mohammedan hordes were too weak to subdue tribes unwilling to share their "vision", they signed treaties only to break them as soon as they felt they were strong enough to win a military victory. Today we see the same policy carried out by Iraq, Iran, Egypt and less adeptly by the so-called Palestinians and Pakistan.

POLLARD'S SUPERVISORS

The U.S. Government claimed that Jonathan Pollard turned over every secret it had to the Israelis. The people who made this charge are either lying bastards or they were derelict in their duty for not court martialing Pollard's supervisors for dereliction of duty. With access to information in the intelligence services on a "need-to-know" basis a lowly code clerk like Pollard should not have had access to all of the information he supposedly gave to the Israelis. If he did, why didn't a lot of heads roll in Naval Intelligence? Just asking.

JAPANESE FISHING BOATS

When will the Japs learn not to fish in American territorial waters?
That means the Pacific Ocean.

ARAB ATTACKS ON COLIN POWELL

This Egyptian press lambasted Colin Powell for turning his back on his brother third worlders. This is just another sign of Arab chutzpah. They feel that the Secretary of State should favor them because of their special relationship. They neglect to note that it was a master-slave relationship. The Arabs were, and continue to be, the world's leading slavers. Despite the nature of the relationship, the Arabs feel that Colin should react warmly to them. It seems that the Secretary has not yet learned that it is unwise to turn one's back on an Arab because your backside will be the beneficiary of a knife or a syphilitic sexual organ.

QUOTES I LIKE

He who winks makes trouble; he who openly reproves makes peace.

Laughter is heard further than weeping.

Writing is one of the easiest things; erasing one of the hardest,

Just as a man of muscle may be attracted to pugilism, so a man without character is drawn into politics. It is a calling that turns his flaws into assets.

Comments appreciated.
