ARE THEY TRYING TO TELL US SOMETHING?***

Every U.S. official from George W. Bush on down (or up) uses the same speech about terrorism. To point out how evil and far reaching terrorism is they run down a list of the countries hit by terrorists. The list includes the U.S., England, Spain, Turkey, Pakistan, Russia, Indonesia, the Philippines, Jordan and Morocco. One name is always missing. Israel. I keep forgetting that the attacks in Israel are not the work of terrorists but of freedom fighters. Isn't always OK to kill Jews? Maybe that's what they are trying to tell us. And maybe, just maybe, we should be listening attentively.

WHEN IS A TAX INCREASE NOT A TAX INCREASE?***

Are you stupid, or something? A tax increase is not a tax increase when you call it by another name. Some examples: when you raise the tolls on the bridges to the point that you wonder whether it pays to drive to work or go on welfare; when the energy companies—with a wink at the Cheney administration—know that they can raise the price of gasoline to the point that you wonder whether it pays to drive to work or go on welfare; when the cost of heating your home—courtesy of the same wink—goes so high that you consider using the rafters of your house for firewood and when you run out of rafters you'll move to a homeless shelter; when the Cheney administration implements the program it is considering to tax company health benefits; or when the Cheney administration eliminates the deductibility of mortgage interest. The list can go on and on—like when the government eliminated the deductibility of credit card interest.

To paraphrase Bill Shakespeare who said: “A rose by any other name would smell as sweet.” Diogenes says: A tax increase by any other name would emit the same foul odor.”

Do you feel a little smarter now that you know when a tax increase is not a tax increase?

I CALL IT FASCISM OR COMMUNISM OR JUST GOOD OLD SLAVERY***

At this writing it appears that New York City may experience a transit strike. A judge has already issued a preliminary injunction prohibiting a strike. This kind of behavior by the judiciary is not unusual, in the past judges have issued injunctions against airline, railroad and other employees that were prepared to strike. Even legislatures have passed laws prohibiting strikes by government employees. I believe that forcing people to work against their will is a sign of a fascist or communist state or even a form of slavery.

There is no question but that this type of strike can cause great inconvenience or even danger to the community. If the concern about the welfare of the community is so overwhelming, why don't the judges issue an injunction against the employers, be they commercial organizations or public entities requiring them to meet the workers demands until the issues are satisfactorily negotiated? Why place the entire burden on the workers? Certainly, the employers can more easily absorb the burden of serving the community—if it is a burden—than the workers.

Forcing people to work against their will is nothing less than involuntary servitude and that's un-American!

IS THE IRAQI ELECTION A SIGN OF DEMOCRACY?***

Not all elections are a sign of democracy. I believe it depends on the mindset of the voters. I would say that in truly democratic countries, citizens vote on the basis of promoting an agenda, which they expect, will be worked out peacefully by the legislative and executive branches. I do not feel that is the mindset of most Iraqi voters.

Each voter is casting a ballot in the hope of submerging his or her enemies. These enemies could be the Sunnis or the Shiites or the Kurds, or the followers of a different imam or the members of a different tribe or secularists or supporters of women's rights, etc., etc., etc. Each vote is meant to drive a nail in the coffin of an enemy; to prevent an enemy from pursuing a separate agenda; to give an enemy no rights; and everyone is an enemy.

This is the Arab/Muslim “democracy” that Americans are dying for.

SUBJECT: NBA or NFL?

It must be the NBA!

Or is it the NFL?

36 have been accused of spousal abuse

7 have been arrested for fraud

19 have been accused of writing bad checks

117 have directly or indirectly bankrupted at least 2 businesses

3 have done time for assault

71, repeat, 71 cannot get a credit card due to bad credit

14 have been arrested on drug-related charges

8 have been arrested for shoplifting

84 have been arrested for drunk driving in the last year

Can you guess which organization this is?

Give up yet? ... . . . . Scroll down, citizen!

It's the 535 members of the United States Congress.

The same group of Idiots that crank out hundreds of new laws each year designed to keep the rest of us in line.

I did not run this through Urban Legends but it sounded so true to life that I decided it to run it anyway.

HOW CUSTOMS GET STARTED

A young Jewish mother is preparing a Brisket one Friday for Shabbat dinner. Her daughter watches with interest as the mother slices off the ends of the Brisket before placing it in the roasting pan. The young girl asks her mother why she did this.

The mother pauses for a moment and then says, "You know, I'm not sure. This is the way I always saw my mother make a brisket. Let's call Grandma and ask her."

So, she phones her mother and asks why they always slice the ends off the brisket before roasting.

The Grandmother thinks for a moment and then says, "You know, I'm not sure why, this is the way I always saw MY mother make a brisket."

Now the two women are very curious, so they pay a visit to the great-grandmother in the nursing home.

"You know when we make a brisket," they explain, "we always slice off the ends before roasting. Why is that?"

"I don't know why YOU do it," says the old woman, "but I never had a pan that was large enough!"

WHY THEY TRY TO KEEP WOMEN OUT OF THE FIRE STATION

A fireman came home from work one day and told his wife,
"You know we have a wonderful system at the fire station:

BELL 1 rings and we all put on our jackets.
BELL 2 rings and we all slide down the pole.
BELL 3 rings and we're on the fire truck ready to go.

From now on when I say...

BELL 1, I want you to strip naked.
BELL 2, I want you to jump in bed.
BELL 3, we are going to make love all night."

The next night he came home from work and yelled "BELL 1!"
The wife promptly took all her clothes off.
When he yelled "BELL 2," the wife eagerly jumped into bed.
When he yelled "BELL 3," they began making love.

After a few minutes the wife yelled "BELL 4!"
"What the hell is BELL 4?" asked the husband.

"ROLL OUT MORE HOSE," she yelled, "YOU'RE NOWHERE NEAR THE FIRE!"

...the most German-loving people who ever lived are (or were) the German Jews. They looked, talked, thought exactly like Germans. Even their names sounded exactly like German names. And they even shared with the Germans an aversion for Jews—that is Jews of other countries. There were never such obedient and appreciative Germans as the German Jews. They swooned with German culture. And even when the Germans loved English or French culture, the German Jews loved only German culture.

Dad: How can you tell if a military condolence letter is signed by Rumsfeld or a machine?

Mom: Is it warm, caring and compassionate?

Dad: Yes.

Mom: The machine did it.

- Walt Handelsman (editorial cartoon)

How curious then, that the media showed no interest in a most remarkable utterance that our nation's top economic official recently made about a crucial policy that affects millions of working families. Greenspan, in his usual imperious and droning way, was dumping a load of economic gobbledygook on the house banking committee, when Rep. Bernie Sanders cut through the verbiage to ask a direct question: "Are you for abolishing the minimum wage?" Startled, the master of obfuscation uncharacteristically blinked and blurted: "I would say that if I had my choice the answer is, of course."

READERS' COMMENTS

In your latest report Diogenes has reverted to Greek theater. He puts on the tragedy mask to correctly call Bush a bumbling idiot in Iraq and Afghanistan, while he puts on the happy mask to naively assume that Bush is a masterful puppeteer to Ariel Sharon, who will lose the upcoming Israeli election. This is to be expected in Greek theater, but how can These dichotomous thoughts come out of one brain?

It is clear that with Shimon Peres joining Sharon's new party, whose platform will conform to the wishes of a majority of the Israeli electorate, both Labor and Likud will become fringe parties.

Diogenes should switch nationalities and produce more of the Jewish Zen couplets.

Happy Chanukah
