A MAN OF FAITH; A WOMAN OF FAITH; AND THE CRAZIES***

Whenever I listen to President Bush’s blather about Iraq, I realize that he is truly a man of faith.” Not necessarily a man of judgment, but most definitely, a man of faith—a sincere man of faith. He meets with Maliki, the prime minister of Iraq and believes what prime minister tells him. This is despite his record of not delivering on past assurances. He promises what just about everyone knows, he cannot deliver and, most likely, he does not want to deliver. Let’s not even consider that he is an Arab and that lying is an integral part of Arab culture. So, for the president of the United States, to believe in what the prime minister says, and to base American policy and the welfare of our troops on his promises surely requires a man of faith.

Unfortunately, I remember our president saying that he looked into Putin’s eyes and saw that he could be trusted. So much for judgment and faith as practiced in the White House. President Bush should have looked into the eyes of some of the folks that Putin sent to labor camps before the decision-maker jumped to his conclusion.

The woman of faith is our very own Condoleeza Rice or Reich as one pundit calls her. American officials who are active in international relations should be aware of the above-stated rule-of-thumb when dealing with Arabs but, obviously, they do not. President Abbas made all kinds of peaceful promises in his discussions with our secretary of state. None of which he intends to fulfill or is even capable of fulfilling. Since he made these promises in English, he does not even consider them lies. Being a woman of faith, she of course, believed him. She made promises of money and arms which she fully intends to fulfill.

You may wonder why I haven’t included the men and women of the Israeli leadership among the people of faith. The decision is simple. The Israeli leaders fall far beyond the reasonable boundaries of faith. I classify them as insane—certifiably insane—so their decisions are not based on any activity in their frontal lobes. Their only connection with sanity is that they don’t claim—in public—that they are Napoleon or Moses or Cleopatra.

PROTOCOLS OF THE ELDERS OF ISLAM #3

Our nation’s willingness to sacrifice their blood, souls, children, fathers and families is an advantage over the Jews who guard their lives.

Hassan Nasrallah, Shiite leader of Hezbollah

If they (Jews) gather in Israel, it will save us the trouble of going after them worldwide.
Hassan Nasrollah

In the Hurriyah neighborhood of Baghdad, gunmen “grabbed six Sunnis as they left Friday worship services, doused them with kerosene and burned them alive near Iraqi soldiers who did not intervene.”
News Report

Everything Yasser Arafat said and believed in his life is a legacy and we will do all our best to implement it.
PA President Mahmoud Abbas

The base of our Fatah movement keeps dreaming of Tel Aviv, Haifa, Jaffa and Acco (Acre). Abbas recognizes Israel because of pressure that the Zionists and the Americans are exercising on him.
Abu Ahmed

Today Gaza, tomorrow Jerusalem.
Mahmoud Abbas

The Zionist regime is heading toward annihilation.
Mahmoud Ahmadinejad

There is no place for the state of Israel on this land.
 Hamas Foreign Minister Mahmoud Zahar

NEOLOGISM AWARDS...FOR MY MORE LITERATE READERS

Once again, The Washington Post has published the winning submissions to its yearly neologism contest, in which readers are asked to supply alternate meanings for common words. The winners are:

1. Coffee (n.), the person upon whom one coughs.
2. Flabbergasted (adj.), appalled over how much weight you have gained.
3. Abdicate (v.), to give up all hope of ever having a flat stomach.
4. Esplanade (v.), to attempt an explanation while drunk.
5. Willy-nilly (adj.), impotent
6. Negligent (adj.) describes a condition in which you absentmindedly answer the door in your nightgown.
7. Lymph (v.), to walk with a lisp.
8. Gargoyle (n.), olive-flavored mouthwash.
9. Flatulence (n.) emergency vehicle that picks you up after you are run over by a steamroller
10. Balderdash (n.), a rapidly receding hairline.
11. Testicle (n.), a humorous question on an exam.
12. Rectitude (n.), the formal, dignified bearing adopted by proctologists.
13. Pokemon (n), a Rastafarian proctologist.
14. Oyster (n.), a person who sprinkles his conversation with Yiddishisms.
15. Frisbeetarianism (n.), (back by popular demand): The belief that, when you die, your soul flies up onto the roof and gets stuck there.
16. Circumvent (n.), an opening in the front of boxer shorts worn by Jewish men.

The Washington Post's Style Invitational also asked readers to take any word from the dictionary, alter it by adding, subtracting, or changing one letter, and supply a new definition. Here are this year's winners:

1. Bozone (n.): The substance surrounding stupid people that stops bright ideas from penetrating. The bozone layer, unfortunately, shows little sign of breaking down in the near future.
2. Foreploy (v): Any misrepresentation about yourself for the purpose of getting laid.
3. Cashtration (n.): The act of buying a house, which renders the subject financially impotent for an indefinite period.
4. Giraffiti (n): Vandalism spray-painted very, very high.
5. Sarchasm (n): The gulf between the author of sarcastic wit and the person who doesn't get it.
6. Inoculatte (v): To take coffee intravenously when you are running late.
7. Hipatitis (n): Terminal coolness.
8. Osteopornosis (n): A degenerate disease.(This one got extra credit.)
9. Karmageddon (n): its like, when everybody is sending off all these really bad vibes, right? And then, like, the earth explodes and it's like, a serious bummer.
10. Decafalon (n.): The grueling event of getting through the day consuming only things that are good for you.
11. Glibido (v): All talk and no action.
12. Dopeler effect (n): The tendency of stupid ideas to seem smarter when they come at you rapidly.

13. Arachnoleptic fit (n.): The frantic dance performed just after you've accidentally walked through a spider web.
14. Beelzebug (n.): Satan in the form of a mosquito that gets into your bedroom at three in the morning and cannot be cast out.
15. Caterpallor (n.): The color you turn after finding half a grub in the fruit you're eating.

And the pick of the literature:

16. Ignoramus (n.): A person who's both stupid and an asshole

NAMES

Names that fit and names that don't.

This name fits: Doggie Doo Everything: a service for dogs & their owners, Stamford, CT.

This one doesn't fit: he wrote bogus checks to a bank in the building where he lives; his name is Kevin Bright!

QUOTES I LIKE

Diogenes considers them clever and/or informative,
Not that he necessarily agrees with them. Not even with his own.

George W. Bush removed the American commander in Iraq, General George Casey and replaced him with Gen, Westmoreland. Who said Iraq was George Bush's Viet Nam?

- Diogenes

Ted Kennedy said that Iraq is George Bush's Viet Nam. He was wrong, George Bush knew how to get out of Viet Nam.

- Jay Leno

When I first said that I wanted us to put together a late-night comedy writing team that would only be 80 percent Ivy League-educated Jews, people thought I was crazy. They said you need 90, 95 percent. But we proved them wrong.

- Jon Stewart

The first time I met Bush 43, I knew he was different. Two things became clear. One, he didn't know very much. The other was he had the confidence to ask questions that revealed he didn't know very much.

- Richard Perle

Border relations between Canada and Mexico have never been better.

- George W. Bush

Desert Storm was a stirring victory for the forces of aggression and lawlessness.

- Dan Quayle

I admired Hitler, for instance, because he came from being a little man with almost no formal education up to power.

- Arnold Schwarznegger

We did not—repeat, did not—trade weapons or anything else for hostages, nor will we.

- Ronald Reagan (November 1986)

A few months ago, I told the American people I did not trade arms for hostages. My heart and my best intentions still tell me that's true, but the facts and the evidence tell me it is not.

- Ronald Reagan (March 1987)

If I see someone come in that's got a diaper on his head and a fan belt wrapped around the diaper on his head, that guy needs to be pulled over.

- Jon Cooksey (Louisiana representative)

After two years in Washington, I miss the sincerity and genuineness of Hollywood.

- Fred Thompson

A man without force, is without the essential dignity of humanity. Human nature is so constituted, that it cannot honor a helpless man, although it can pity him.

- Frederick Douglass

The tragedy of Henry Kissinger is that he is a very large intellect joined to a very small man.

- Mark Danner

Henry Kissinger lies like most people breathe.

- Seymour Hersh

To know what you prefer, instead of humbly saying Amen to what the world says you ought to prefer, is to have kept your soul alive.

- Robert Louis Stevenson

I have a premonition that will not leave me; as it goes with Israel so it will go with all of us. Should Israel perish the Holocaust will be upon us.

- Eric Hoffer (1968)

Now that Taco Bell has solved its E-coli problem it should change its slogan to "Think outside of the emergency room."
